Two Cotswold Towns: Witney & Burford - £12

Tuesday 24th Pick-up at 9.30am Return at 3.45pm

First stop will be Witney, the largest town in the Cotswolds. Famous for its manufacture of Witney blankets, it still reflects its historic and prosperous woollen trade. It is easy to while away the morning in Witney, browsing its 16th & 17th century features and its bustling atmosphere with a good range of independent specialist shops and two shopping centres. After lunch we will travel on to Burford, one of the most picturesque towns in England. Much smaller and quieter than Witney it is very popular for its delightful main street lined with honey coloured Cotswold stone cottages. Take time for afternoon tea at one of the many cafes before we depart.
